October 6, 1981

Ed Jackamonis, Speaker
Room 211, West
State Capitol

Dear Ed:

As you know, it has been my intention for some time to resign my Co-Chairmanship of the Reapportionment Committee to enable me to devote more time to other professional interests. Although it has been my pleasure to serve as Co-Chairman, the demands on my time have now grown too great to devote the close attention reapportionment requires.

Please accept my resignation as Co-Chairman of the Reapportionment Committee effective immediately.

Sincerely,
BILL BROYDRICK
